

RSOL demands repeal of Rhode Island residency restrictions; Supports lawsuit prohibiting enforcement

written by NARSOL | October 8, 2015

Cambridge, MA—RSOL, Inc.—a leading civil rights group advocating on behalf of registered citizens and their families—called today for the immediate repeal of Rhode Island’s newest law designed to segregate registrants, deprive them of their homes and property, and further erode the constitutional rights of American citizens. read full release