

NARSOL rocks Cleveland for its tenth annual conference, June 8-10

written by Robin Vander Wall | March 5, 2018

By Robin . . . The National Association for Rational Sexual Offense Laws (NARSOL) is on the road to Independence, Ohio (just South of Cleveland) for its tenth annual conference! The conference will be held at the Crowne Plaza Cleveland South from June 8 through 10. Conference registration is already open and you are encouraged to take advantage of early bird prices available for a limited period of time. The cost of registration does not include travel or lodging, but arrangements have been made with the Crowne Plaza to offer registered attendees a special rate of $99/night (just use IATA # 99801505 and Group Code N18 when booking, which can be done here).

This year's conference theme is The Road to Independence | Reclaiming FULL liberties and NARSOL is excited to present an impressive list of featured speakers who are looking forward to meeting you there. Among the featured speakers is NARSOL's very own attorney, Paul Dubbeling, who is returning for his second conference presentation. We're also very enthused to be hosting attorney and documentarian David Feige (renowned for his award winning work Untouchable and the producer of several micro-documentaries about registered citizens). Another exciting feature presentation will include a mock hearing in front of Ohio state senators John Eklund (R) and Mike Skindell (D), former Ohio attorney general Marc Dann, and Connie Nolder, a legislative consultant. The featured speakers list is rounded out by Atty. Jeff Gamso and Atty. Lea Bickerton, both of whom have been actively involved in litigation efforts on behalf of registered citizens.

Full price for the conference is $199. But if you register before May 1st, you can take advantage of the early bird registration discount of $20. NARSOL members also receive an additional rebate of $50 off the full price of registration. Registration for the entire weekend includes NARSOL's awards banquet and meal which is scheduled for Friday night. So, if you're a member of NARSOL and you register before May 1st, the total cost of the conference is only $129! Not a member? Join today!

For more detailed information about the conference, please visit the conference website or view the conference brochure which we encourage you to print and distribute or send as an attachment to anyone you believe may be interested in attending the conference.

You do not want to miss this conference! So be there. Register today! Help NARSOL rock Cleveland on The Road to Independence!
