

RM36 – How to go to the library and get arrested

written by admin | August 7, 2018

Episode 36

Click here to listen:
<http://www.registrymatters.co/podcast/rm36-how-to-go-to-the-library-and-get-arrested/>

[3:55] From wcpo – Springfield Township man claims Ohio's sex offender parole law won't allow visits with son

<https://www.wcpo.com/news/insider/springfield-township-man-claims-ohios-sex-offender-parole-law-won-t-allow-visits-with-son>

[13:45] From Green Bay Press Gazette – Brown County library branches in Denmark, Green Bay trapped by conflicting laws, security concerns

<https://amp.greenbaypressgazette.com/amp/838883002>

[19:24] Supreme Court Sets New Evidentiary Standard in Child Sex Abuse Cases

<https://www.law.com/njlawjournal/2018/08/01/supreme-court-sets-new-evidentiary-standard-in-child-sex-abuse-cases/>

[36:40] More Ex-Prisoners Can Vote – They Just Don't Know It
<https://www.themarshallproject.org/2018/08/01/more-ex-prisoners-can-vote-they-just-don-t-know-it?ref=hp-1-112>

[47:09] Wisconsin Supreme Court Holds Lifetime GPS Monitoring IS NOT Punishment

[1:17:00] On Twitter, Lenore Skenazy posted:
Megan's Law gave us the public Sex Offender Registry. But research shows it isn't making kids safer. In fact: Most crimes against kids are by people NOT on the registry, and most registrants don't re-offend.

Share the podcast with those you know so that we can continue to grow our audience! We continue to receive a lot of positive feedback. Help us grow!

Registrymatters.co

747-227-4477

registrymatterscast@gmail.com

patreon.com/registrymatters