

NJ Superior Ct. opens door for removal from registry for two registrants

written by Sandy | December 7, 2018

By Sandy . . . A New Jersey Superior Court has handed down a great decision. Two registrants had sought relief from registration under a law in that state that permits such relief. The two registrants had been denied in a lower court, and the higher court on December 7, 2018, reversed that finding, sending the case back to the lower court.

The decision may be viewed here.

The A.P. has posted this piece about the case.