

Sex offenders at Moose Lake end 14-day hunger strike after reaching deal

written by admin | February 7, 2021

[startribune.com – 2/4/21] A group of men held at a sex offender treatment center in Moose Lake, Minn., have ended a two-week hunger strike, after state officials agreed to discuss possible changes to the program that holds offenders indefinitely past the end of their criminal sentences. A dozen men who had stopped eating called off [...]

[\[Read More\]](#)