

Press release announcing our conference sent to media across the nation

written by admin | September 20, 2021

NARSOL's official press release giving the details of our upcoming conference in Houston and information about our organization went out September 20, 2021. Media representatives are always welcomed at our conferences and given special passes enabling them to attend all speakers, presentations, and workshops. You may view the press release here.