This two-hour NARSOL conference call took place on September 30. We discussed NARSOL's new relationship with Paul Dubbeling, an attorney based in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, who is now on retainer with NARSOL. He will be leading our reinvigorated Scarlet Legal Action Project (SLAP).

Hour 1: We had an introduction and overview of the Scarlet Legal Action Project and our priorities. Mr. Dubbeling and NARSOL's executive director Brenda Jones discussed the issues and answered questions.

Hour 2: Brenda gave an overview of the upcoming NARSOL national conference. Then Mr. Dubbeling, Brenda, and host Larry took questions related to SLAP and other legal issues and cases from the audience. They were joined by attorney Adele Nichols, who was on the call.
