

2014 Conference

written by Fred | March 23, 2017

Dr Leon talks about the false myths behind current sex offender policies and how reform efforts relate to the larger context of justice policy.

Her book is titled "Sex Fiends, Perverts, and Pedophiles: Understanding Sex Crime Policy in America"

Recorded on Tuesday August 26, 2014 in a classroom at the University of Delaware with her students present. There were technical problems with the recording made in Dallas this past July. Dr Leon generously agreed to repeat her presentation for RSOL.

A Look at the Future of RSOL.

RSOL Executive Director Brenda Jones talks about the accomplishments of the last year as well as the court case currently in progress in Maryland.

Administrative Team Chairman Paul Shannon gives a short history of how Reform Sex Offender Laws, inc was formed.

As a child of the sixties growing up in San Francisco Dr Davidson has a unique perspective on the ways in which our government has side-stepped the constitution to oppress it's people in the past and now with sex offenders. Like many families his has been touched by the issue and he speaks movingly about the need to fight the good fight and make the sex offender registry a thing of the past.
